Episcopal church officiating, the ring service being used. The couple were attended by Miss Paulina Darling, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Harry Darling a brother of the bride, as best man. The bride was attired in white silk messaline and of evergreen and the room was very pretty and tastefully decorated in green and white.

Celebration Next Tuesday

All roads will lead to Morrisville next Tuesday, when will occur one of the largest Fourth of July celebrations ever witnessed in the County.
This is to be a Lamoille County affair in every sense of the word and several other towns beside Morristown will take an active interest in the various attractions. The program as printed on small bills and elsewhere in this issue will be faithfully carried out and everything points to a rousing good time with the largest crowd seen in town in years. There will be nearly $200 in cash given away for parade and contest prizes. Following is the program:

Sunrise salute, 20 guns, sunrise; assembling of participants in grand parade, 9 a. m.; grand parade, 10 a. m.; contests and sports 1 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.; baseball game, Johnson vs. Morrisville, Old Fair Grounds, 4 p. m.; sunset salute, 20 guns, 7:30 p. m.; grand concert by united bands 7:30 p. m.; grand display of fireworks at 8:30 p. m.

As the Fourth comes but once a year everybody should stop and consider its significance and then come to Morrisville and help in the celebration. The parade alone, which promises to be the biggest and best ever seen in this vicinity, will be an event which you cannot afford to lose.
Read carefully the ad on page six in this issue. Arrangements have been made, whereby special trains will leave Morrisville after the fireworks, running as far as Greensboro on the east and Cambridge Junction on the west, thus giving all a chance to remain until everything is over.

In view of inquiries, which have been made of the committee on sports, this paper is requested to say that entries can be made at any time up to the hour of the events. There is no entrance fee and contests are open to the world.

Death of Mrs. Esther Blake.

Mrs. Esther Peabody Huntington Blake, mother of Mrs. Sylvia Burke, died at the home of the latter on Park street yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock, after an illness of about three weeks from apoplexy and other ailments incident to old age.
Had she lived until next October she would have rounded out 90 years of an especially active and useful life.
Short funeral services will be held at the house Thursday morning at nine o'clock and the remains will be taken to East Hardwick for burial in the family lot. Rev. C. C. St. Clare of the Cong'l church, of which she was a member, will officiate.

The deceased was born in Greensboro October 20th, 1815, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huntington, and was married in that place on May 7, 1837, to Franklin Blake of that place. In 1857 she went west with her husband, and settled in Kansas and resided there until 1879.
During their residence in Kansas, Mr.
Blake died, leaving her with six children. It was here she experienced a taste of frontier life. She went from Kansas to Colorado in '79 and resided there until 1899, when she came to Morrisville, where she has since resided with her daughter. She is survived by five children, Mrs. Burke of this place, two daughters in Colorado Springs, Colo., and one son in Imperial, Cal. Fifteen grandchildren, all of whom are in Colorado except two, one is in the navy and the other in San Francisco, Cal., and eleven great grandchildren.

Mrs. Blake retained her faculties to a remarkable degree and only three weeks before her death walked to the Cong'l church to attend one of Evangelist Cousin's afternoon services.
She also walked to the Universalist church on this occasion to look in upon the sale, which was then in progress. She was a woman of unusual mental and physical abilities and the influence of her long and useful life will long be felt by all who knew her.

Children's Day at Methodist Church

Children's day was observed at the Puffer M. E. Church last Sunday morning by a concert by the Sunday school children which was well-carried out. The pastor, the Rev. P. A.
Smith, gave an interesting talk to the children as part of the program.
The floral decorations were very beautiful. The program was:—

Prayer, "The Lord's Prayer," Rev. P. A. Smith

Fourth of July is coming next Tuesday and wouldn't it be a good idea for the people of the village to spend a part of the day Monday in decorating their places of business and residences. A supply of bunting and flags can be had of the local merchants, who have made special pre-
